

RULES FOR VISITORS TO THE NATIONAL MUSEUM ZURICH

Welcome to the National Museum Zurich.

We are proud to offer our visitors the highest levels of safety and cleanliness. We therefore ask that you follow the rules set out below, which – unless explicitly stated otherwise – apply throughout the entire premises (exhibition rooms, foyer, boutique, cloakroom, toilets, etc.).

1. You are required to comply with our rules for visitors during your visit to the National Museum Zurich.
2. For security reasons, the National Museum Zurich is under video surveillance.
3. Do not touch the objects on display, damage them or interfere with them in any way. Visitors will be held liable for all damage they cause.
4. Prams are not allowed inside the exhibition rooms. Our own Museum buggies and baby carriers are available at the Welcome Desk if required.
5. Unless otherwise indicated, photography for private purposes, without the use of a flash or tripod, is permitted in the exhibition rooms.
6. The National Museum Zurich is a smoke-free zone. Eating and drinking in the exhibition area is not allowed.
7. With the exception of guide dogs, no animals are allowed in the National Museum Zurich.
8. Shopping bags, gym bags, briefcases, luggage, backpacks, musical instruments, art portfolios, wet weather gear, umbrellas, heavy coats, jackets, etc. must be deposited in the lockers in the cloakroom area. This excludes small bags up to A3 size.
9. Items placed in the lockers must be collected before you leave the National Museum Zurich. The lockers are opened and emptied by Museum staff every evening for security reasons.
10. Teachers, group leaders, and parents or guardians are responsible for the appropriate conduct of children and adolescents accompanying them. Shouting and running are not permitted in the exhibition rooms. Inappropriate or disruptive behaviour, particularly towards other visitors or towards the staff and representatives of the National Museum Zurich, is prohibited.

Visitors must abide by the instructions of staff and representatives of the National Museum Zurich. Violations of the rules may result in visitors being asked to leave the Museum, or in prosecution or claims for damages. If you are asked to leave, the entrance fee will not be refunded. Thank you for your understanding. We hope you enjoy your visit.
